Conference Details

Fall conferences are not scheduled appointments. Teachers will be available in the large gym during the dates listed on the school website. Parents and students can come at their convenience. Winter conferences will be scheduled if needed. Parents will be contacted by teachers if a conference is necessary.

Special Education

Through individualized instruction, the special education staff will utilize state educational standards that align to each student's current learning level. With the use of accommodations, and modifications, the goal is to have students succeed at their highest independent capabilities.
